Iowa Conservation Education Coalition

Founded in 1958, the Iowa Conservation Education Coalition (ICEEC) is the unifying voice for conservation and environmental education in the state of Iowa. ICEEC is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization with a long-standing tradition of providing professional development and networking opportunities for conservation educators.

Attendees of our Winter Workshop will learn how to inspire others to protect natural resources, share the conservation message with their audience, and advance environmental education as a vital part of a K-12 education. Speakers include representatives from a variety of organizations and agencies that participate in conservation education. We look forward to engaging and connecting conservation educators from across the state to strengthen our conservation community.

Sponsorship of the Winter Workshop supports our efforts to provide an excellent professional development opportunity for these invaluable educators.
