

ICEC Winter Workshop

February 2, 2018

Jester Park Lodge

11121 NW Jester Park Dr.

Granger, IA 50109

Schedule

- 7:30 a.m. Registration and silent auction item drop off
- 8:30 a.m. Welcome - ICEC and Jester Park staff
- 8:45 a.m. Session 1 –WILD STEM Opportunities – Barb Gigar, Department of Natural Resources
Learn about different resources and formats for getting students outside with STEM
- 9:30 a.m. Break – morning snack and bid on silent auction items
- 9:45 a.m. Session 2 – Soil Health Kits – Judy Martinson, Natural Resources Conservation Service, & Craig Edmondson, Heartland Area Education Agency
Motivated by a past ICEC workshop, NRCS has created soil health kits aligned with the new Iowa Science Standards
- 10:30 a.m. Session 3 – SOAR Authentic Student Data – Kay Neumann, Saving Our Avian Resources (SOAR)
Learn about SOAR’s new program to provide authentic raptor data for the classroom
- 11:15 a.m. ICEC Annual Meeting – ICEC members only
- 11:45 a.m. Lunch
- 12:30 p.m. Keynote – TBA
- 1:30 p.m. Update from Kris Kilibarda, Department of Education
- 2:15 p.m. Break – afternoon snack and bid on silent auction items
- 2:30 p.m. Session 4 – IPTV Environmental Science Resources – Tiffany Morgan, Iowa Public Television
Learn about IPTV’s environmental science resources and projects to connect with Iowa classrooms
- 3:15 p.m. Session 5 – Introduction to IAS GLOBE Program – Eve Halligan, Iowa Academy of Science
Connect students and their families to their local environments with this renowned citizen science program
- 4:00 p.m. Last chance to bid on silent auction items
- 4:30 p.m. Silent auction ends – collect your winnings
Safe travels home!

Special thanks to Polk County Conservation for donating the use Jester Park Lodge for this workshop!

