

ICEC Executive Committee Nomination Application

The Iowa Conservation Education Coalition Executive Committee (ExCom) is comprised of between seven and 13 individuals, each serving 3-year terms. Executive Committee meets a minimum of four (4) times each year, many of the meetings are held via video conference in the early evening.

Each member brings his or her own diverse knowledge, skills, and talents to work together toward a common goal of ICEC's purpose. Each year, nominations and elections are held to fill the Executive Committee. In 2017, at minimum, two Executive Committee positions will be filled. Election to the ICEC Executive Committee means you have the opportunity to use your talents to further the purpose of ICEC!

Iowa Conservation Education Coalition's Purpose:

ICEC's purpose is to promote and support conservation education and environmental education in Iowa.

Why do you want to be part of the ICEC ExCom? Describe your skills that will help ICEC fulfill our purpose. Explain past duties and accomplishments in other elected positions, your job, or other organizations you belong to, as well as your own personal strengths as a leader or visionary.

In 200 words or less, be sure to include:

- Why you want to be part of ExCom
- What you can contribute to ICEC by being on the ExCom
- Your occupation/background, skills and accomplishments

*Also, please include your name, address, phone, and email.
This is not part of the 200-word description.*

____ Yes, I would like to run for the Iowa Conservation Education Coalition Executive Committee. I understand the responsibilities of this position and – if elected – am willing to accept these. I also recognize that it is an honor to be elected to this statewide position.
